

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting STAY NOURISHED. Protecting your privacy is of outmost importance to us.

STAY NOURISHED is authorized to release information regarding your outpatient care to other parties including: private health insurance companies, Medicare and other claims processors, medical practitioners, and primary guardians or carers. This information may be requested for the purpose of continuing care, billing, and patient health. The disclosed information may include all or part of your medical record.

We will not release any information outside of those purposes and appropriate requests. Your privacy and trust is of the utmost importance to us. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us through www.staynourished.com.au